

36th Annual Fort Lowell Day Celebration

Saturday, February 11, 2017, 12 pm – 4 pm

January 2017

Where history comes to life

The Old Fort Lowell Neighborhood has been called a microcosm of Southwest history because people of diverse cultures have lived here for well over a thousand years. Ancient Hohokam dwellings and artifacts are still being unearthed. Historic Mormon aqueducts carry water and harbor wildlife. Ruins of the Fort Lowell military camp continue to be preserved and interpreted, and descendants of Mexican settlers of El Fuerte (The Fort) still reside in the adobe homes of their ancestors.

Here are some of the activities you and your family can enjoy during Fort Lowell Day:

- Meet and greet the Cavalry in Fort Lowell Park and watch them perform their drills.
- Take a tour of Fort Lowell Museum with the new Western Art Exhibit.
- Enjoy 19th Century military band music.
- Stroll on a walking tour of the many historic sites in the Old Fort Lowell neighborhood with interpretations by knowledgeable hosts; enjoy entertainment from a variety of musicians and delicious food.
- Visit the San Pedro Chapel and La Capillita; make Mexican paper flowers; hear a lecture on 19th Century Medicine and watch a demonstration of field surgery in action!

We give you glimpses only of the highlights of the day in this Newsletter and suggest you visit our  Facebook Page Facebook.com/fortlowellday for additional information including videos of last year's event and the special medical event below.

Also check the website www.oldfortlowellneighborhood for specific times and details the day of the event.

**Special Event****

Blood and Guts Medicine in the 19th Century Southwest

2:00 pm San Pedro Chapel

The treatment of illness and disease in the 19th Century southwest reflected the mélange of beliefs of the diverse peoples who settled here: indigenous people with their shamanic ceremonies and herbal remedies; Spaniards with their theories of 'body humors out of balance' and treatments of 'bleeding and purging'. The arrival of the US Army in the 1840's brought western medicine and the practical skills of 'barber surgeons' active in the treatment of battlefield injuries. Dr. Rudy Byrd, well known Family Medicine Physician, will share his extensive knowledge of this colorful history, and Dr. Bob Hunter will demonstrate some battlefield surgical techniques at the San Pedro Chapel at 2:00 pm. For a preview, watch the video on Facebook.

IN FORT LOWELL PARK - east of Craycroft

The State flag will be raised at 12 noon to open the day's activities, accompanied by the 4th US Cavalry Band. Following the raising of the flag, visitors are welcome to meet the musicians and will be entertained by a concert of 19th Century band music.

B Troop, US Cavalry Regiment (Memorial) from Fort Huachuca will conduct drills on the old Parade Grounds at the Park. The 4th Cavalry Regiment is one of the most famous and most decorated regiments in the US Army. Since its activation in 1855 it has continuously served the United States of America.

And in between events...

Come to 'Meet and Greet' the soldiers and their horses.

Learn how to make adobe bricks at the Post Hospital.

Kids can pick up a Passport to History to be stamped at many sites east and west of Craycroft – and receive a Popcorn Award.

Explore the life of the Fort – the troops, scouts, doctors and Geronimo's warriors in the Fort Lowell Museum. See the new Statehood exhibits and the show of Western Art.

*Fort Lowell will be closed to traffic between Craycroft and Beverly from noon to 4 pm.
A van shuttle is available for transport between Fort Lowell Park and San Pedro Chapel.
A bus tour to the historic sites of Tucson Medical Center will be available from Fort Lowell Park (12:30 pm - 3 pm) and includes an exhibit of old surgical instruments.*

HISTORIC SITES WALKING TOUR - west of Craycroft

The walking tour of historic sites meanders from the Hohokam site in Fort Lowell Park across Craycroft and westwards along Fort Lowell Road to the San Pedro Chapel. Pick up a map of the sites at the Information Booths in Fort Lowell Park, at the Commissary, El Callejon or at the Chapel. Hosts will be on hand to interpret the features of each site and recount the history. Food, water, and drinks can be purchased en route. A free shuttle service is available for transport between San Pedro Chapel and the parking area in Fort Lowell Park.

Some points of interest along the way.....

Inside the Commissary on the corner of Fort Lowell and Craycroft, meet Duane Bingham whose rich family history is embedded in the stories he tells of the Mormon farmers and settlers of the 19th Century in this area.

On the opposite corner of the street at the old Adkins Site, marvel at the restored Officers' Quarters of historic Fort Lowell. Enjoy exhibits of the archaeological discoveries revealed during excavation as well as cultural artifacts from Hohokam and Native American occupations.

At "Las Saetas," the site of the Post Trader's Store, note the "Zagwan" through which horse and carriage rode to deliver the Officers from the Fort. Hosts will tell the colorful history of this house that became by turns a TB Sanitarium for Dr. Swan, a hog farm, a ruin, and a private residence...

Wander down El Callejon, past the little store La Tiendita, past homes of the descendants of the village of El Fuerte, to the house of Juan the Curandero, and hear the extraordinary stories of his healings...

Stroll through the mesquite bosque to the Irrigation Ditch and explore the plants and animals of our area with our own wildlife biologist, Barry Spicer.

Pause during your stroll through history to enjoy mariachi music from Los Changuito Feos de Tucson and Trio Gala, and western music by Way Out West.

Check at the information booths for the performance times of each of the groups.

AT SAN PEDRO CHAPEL

Mariachi Mass 10 am

Fort Lowell Day begins with a Mariachi Mass celebrated at San Pedro Chapel at 10 am honoring Los Fuertenos, the original residents of the village of El Fuerte, who built the Chapel. This is a lovely event to start the day whether or not you follow the Catholic faith. From the Chapel enjoy a vista of the Catalinas sparkling in the early morning light. At the call of the Chapel's historic bell, march with the Mariachis in procession from La Capillita to the Chapel and enter beneath an honor guard of mounted cavalry. Father Christopher Corbally officiates at the Mass and Trio Gala provides the music. Afterwards there is a social gathering on the Chapel grounds.

**Please note that seating at the Chapel is very limited and preference is given to descendants of the Fuertenos and their guests****

During the afternoon at San Pedro Chapel:

- Take a tour of the historic Chapel and grounds with Dennis Olson during the afternoon. Meet in front of La Capillita.
- Shop at the Chapel Store for T-shirts, OFLNA publications and unique souvenirs, while listening to the trio Way Out West play nostalgic western and cowboy songs.
- Listen to the lecture/demonstration on Blood and Guts Medicine in the 19th Century Southwest at 2:00 pm.
- Throughout the afternoon make Mexican paper flowers.

VOLUNTEERING for the Fort Lowell Day Celebration

Volunteering for this event is a great way to get to know your neighbors. We ask you to offer 1-2 hours of service leaving plenty of opportunity to enjoy the day's events for yourself.

Antiques & Collectibles Sale 2016

Despite rain during the sale again this year, and the loss of a major consignor who moved out of town, the 20th annual Antiques and Collectibles sale was a financial success, with OFLNA and OFLLAH each adding $5100 to their coffers. This success is due entirely to the efforts of the many volunteers who helped staff this annual fund-raiser and to the cooperation of everyone in coping with the difficult weather conditions. We are getting better at it – we've had rain during five of the last six A & C and Flea Market sales!

This Sale and the spring Flea Market are a wonderful opportunity to meet neighbors you might not see otherwise, and to enjoy the reward of helping our two Fort Lowell organizations. Only through a Community effort can the sales take place. This year over 75 different individuals worked in some capacity on the Antiques and Collectibles Sale – truly a neighborhood commitment. We are very grateful for the efforts of each and every one of you. Dorothy Steele, Diana Warr, and Julie Miller.

Brush and Bulky Alamo Wash and Trails Cleanup - Fall 2016

Just a shout out thank you to all who participated in our semi-annual cleanup of the wash and trails. Volunteers from the neighborhood as well as the wonderful Catalina High School Honors Society members filled two forty-foot containers. And it was thru the pre-cleaning efforts of Bob Lindrud that we had everything organized in such a fashion that filling the containers was the focus of our work. This is an ongoing effort and we will be at it once again in the Spring of 2017. Frank Flasch, Brush and Bulky Coordinator.

The One Can a Week = Four Cans a Month Program

The program continues, as the need for Food donations to the Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona never stops. If you live in an HOA that has already set up a program please contribute. If you are not sure if your HOA has such a program please contact Frank Flasch (frank.flasch@aol.com) for information or to start such a program in your neighborhood. The food bank will take food or cash contributions.

In 2016 the program will do well over 5,000 lbs. of food and over $3000 contributed. As the New Year approaches, the demand for food will not go away. Please continue your contributions for 2017!

Membership in the Old Fort Lowell Neighborhood Association for 2017
New in 2017 – Pay and Donate Online via the OFLNA Website
